ECHOES FROM WASHINGTON.

As a kind of a resume of the situation as found around the "Liberty Bell" headquarters at Washington, a correspondent for the Associated Negro Press finds that Link Johnson and his gang are beginning to realize fully just what little influence they really have with the leaders of the Republican party and the real thinking men and women of their own race.

The conduct of those who had charge of the Republican campaign at Chicago in 1920, is now being repudiated by those who instigated the work in the hands of those so-called leaders.

It is said that the party leaders feel that those who were in charge of the Chicago headquarters were well, and that most of them over-estimated the work they were doing about the party. They are only fooling themselves.

With such plain spoken words, we are inclined to agree with the correspondent, and say it is time for these fellows to see themselves as others see them.

So far as we are concerned we can't but see that the actions of the party leaders in refusing to recognize these fellows, as the only logical conclusion.

The only regret we have in the matter is that this race will suffer some because of such men as Link Johnson and Phil Brown were placed its position of trust at Chicago.

Of course, Phil Brown saw what was coming a year ago, and when others were talking about "Relief Headquarters" Phil Brown was begging his boss for a job and he got it before the crash came.

Time will tell a wonderful story to those who have the patience to wait a little longer. The people must know who the real leaders are.

Remember, "You cannot fool all the people, all the time."

SHERIFFS AND LYNNCHERS

In all the arguments against the anti-lynching bill which is now before the United States Senate, we have as yet to hear any say that a sheriff or any other police officer did their duty in protecting their prisoners when a lynching occurred.

Everybody knows that mobs are made up of cowards, and protected criminals. For the leader of a mob to walk boldly in to a sheriff's office and demand a prisoner from the hands of the law, shows three times that he must have assurance of before hand.

First, that his sheriff or other officer is in sympathy with the mob and will not shoot:

Second, that his mob will be approved by the county in which the lynching occurs:

Third, that not one member of the mob will be prosecuted or made to suffer the heat for the part they play in a lynching.

With these three strong points in the mob's favor, is there any wonder that lynchings for mere trifles are quite common in some communities in the South?

We have never heard of a prisoner being taken from a sheriff or other police officer that did their duty. Begging and persuading, that is all they do.

With such conditions prevailing, there is absolutely no hope of ever putting an end to lynching unless the United States government takes a hand in the matter.

As charged by some that the anti-lynching bill usurps state rights, but the fact in the case is the law will strengthen state rights. Its operation will be a strong arm in helping to enforce the state laws.

Every state through its parent body guaranteed to every man the equal protection of the law, and the right to life, liberty and property without interference, and by process of law.

The several states in whose confines lynching is most prevalent should be prompt to have the fastidious of the Federal government in protecting its citizens from mob law.

The Federal government owes it to the several states to give such assistance.

RUNNING TRUE TO FORM

George S. Davis, editor of the Post-Dispatch, and Harry E. Hawes, his man Friday, have placed themselves on record as in favor of lynching law. No reason for surprise in this. Hawes was born in Kentucky, and Davis is the son of a southern Presbyterian preacher. They are simply "running true to form." — The Censor.

You, certainly, everybody, who is opposed to an anti-lynching bill is in favor of lynching — no argument there.

Henry Lincoln Johnson is the Republican National Committee man from Georgia. If he is not looking for a job at Washington, pray tell us why he keeps "hanging around up there?"

It's pretty good philosophy to say "We can" if we think we can. But we must remember that some fools think they can do anything.

Be perfectly honest now, ask yourself this question: "What have I done toward helping the anti-lynching bill?" THIS MEANS YOU.

An inquiry into the cause of disaster caused by the wrecking of the giant ship Roma. We think the inquiry will amount to just about $5 million as the twenty billion dollars fine against the Standard Oil Company.
